

How to leave a gift in your will to ELF.

I'm making a will for the first time

We all have final wishes and making a will is the only way to make sure that your loved ones and the causes you care about are taken care of and supported.

ELF would always recommend obtaining the advice of a solicitor. The cost of this will depend on how complex your affairs and wishes are, but may not be as expensive as you think.

In England you can contact the Law Society for details of a solicitors near you www.lawsociety.org.uk / 020 7242 1222. Tozers Solicitors LLP, www.tozers.co.uk, based in Exeter, support ELF and will waive their fee for simple Wills, inviting you instead to make a donation to ELF. This offer excludes more complex Wills and those involving Tax Planning, where Tozers would waive part of it's fee and invite a corresponding donation to ELF.
